

2010 National Suit Drive Was a Success

Posted on 26 October 2010

The Men's Divorce Law Firm was proud to participate in Men's Warehouse's National Suit Drive, which took place throughout the month of September.

This year's National Suit Drive collected 88,593 items of clothing, including 20,276 suits. Men's Warehouse has committed to matching the donation of 20,276 suits with the same number of brand-new dress shirts.

During this event, all Men's Warehouse and Men's Warehouse & Tux stores as well as the Men's Divorce Law Firm office acted as drop off locations for gently used professional clothing. The clothing donations collected were then directed to local nonprofit organizations.

The Men's Divorce Law Firm pulled together all of their resources to drop off a very large donation to the Men's Warehouse to show our support for providing men with second chances at success. We would like to take the time now to recognize an incredible company that had their employees reach deep into their closets to give all that they could and provided the largest donation through the Men's Divorce Law Firm:
